

HIGH WYCOMBE RUFC

EQUITY POLICY

1. POLICY STATEMENT

High Wycombe RUFC recognises the importance of affording equity, equal opportunity and fair treatment to all present and potential employees and members.

High Wycombe RUFC aims to ensure that all people irrespective of their age, gender, ability, race, religion, ethnic origin, creed, colour, nationality, social status or sexual orientation have a genuine and equal opportunity to participate in rugby union at all levels and in all roles. That is, as a beginner, participant or performer, and as a coach, official, referee, manager, administrator or spectator.

It is the aim of High Wycombe RUFC in its relationships with its members, employees, job applicants and in the provision of its services, not to disadvantage any individual by imposing any conditions or requirements which cannot be justified. Failure to comply may result in disciplinary action being taken.

Advice and training, where practical or applicable, will be given to all those working for or on behalf of the Club.

Direct discrimination is defined as treating a person less favourably than others are or would be treated in the same or similar circumstances.

Indirect discrimination occurs when a requirement or condition is applied which, whether intentional or not, adversely affects a considerably larger proportion of people of one race, sex or marital status.

2. OBJECTIVES

High Wycombe Equity Policy has the following objectives:

To adopt a planned approach to eliminating perceived barriers which discriminate against particular groups. This will include widening the traditional approach and include communities experiencing disadvantage, poverty and health inequalities.

To ensure that no-one working or wishing to work for or on behalf of High Wycombe RUFC receives less favourable treatment on the grounds outlined in the Policy Statement above.

To give clear guidance to individuals working within High Wycombe RUFC, either employed or as volunteers, on the commitment to equal opportunities.

To ensure that all those who participate in rugby union, at all levels and in all roles, receive fair and equitable treatment.

To ensure that the format and content of all competitions, regulations and assessments provide equity for all, except where specific situations and conditions properly or reasonably prevent this.

To ensure that all materials prepared, produced and distributed by or on behalf of High Wycombe RUFC promote a clear image of the profile of all those who are a part of the game.

3. IMPLEMENTATION

High Wycombe RUFC will seek to promote equity and equality through:

The monitoring of practices, procedures and data relating to the operations of competitions, schemes, initiatives and development materials.

A regular review of existing rules and regulations to ensure that they do not inhibit the participation of people from groups which may suffer discrimination.

Increasing collaboration with partner organisations to ensure equity, and fair and consistent treatment of all members.

The provision of appropriate training, where applicable or practical, for all employees and volunteers to raise awareness of both collective and individual responsibilities, to support their progress within the Club and, where applicable or appropriate, provide specialised facilities, equipment and individual training.

In pursuance of this policy, High Wycombe RUFC may take special measures or positive action in favour of any group which is currently under-represented in its membership or workforce.. In this, High Wycombe RUFC recognises its legal obligations under the following acts of Parliament:

Race Relations Act 1976 (Amendment 2000)

Equal Pay Act 1970

Sex Discrimination Acts 1975, 1986, 1999

4. MONITORING

High Wycombe RUFC will continuously monitor and review recruitment and selection criteria and procedures in relation to participation and employment to ensure individuals are treated in accordance with this policy.

5. EXEMPTIONS

High Wycombe RUFC reserves the right to limit to playing the game to persons of specific age, gender or disability groups where this is necessary to ensure equitable, safe and equal competition.

6. RESPONSIBILITY

High Wycombe RUFC expects all those acting on behalf of the Club to adhere to this policy.
